

Single me out:

It all feels like falling down to me you know
I'll reassemble once I get down below
Now I've seen how the closing heart compels
I feel like someone else

Making the least of your loving, is going against your will

Single me out like you would, single me out it's all good
Peel off all my skin, it doesn't mean a thing to me
Single me out like you would, single me out it's all good
Crunching on my chest, the teeth of death were kissing me

I like myself a lot better when I'm alright
I'll reconsider my attempt at suicide
Now I've seen how the broken heart repels
I feel like someone else

I feel like someone else, if you're like someone else
I feel like someone else, if you like someone
